LakeCityPT
PHYSICAL THERAPY

ONCOLOGY PROFESSIONALS:

DO PATIENTS NEED PT?

12 QUESTIONS TO ASK YOUR PATIENT

SHEREE DIBIASE PT

OVERVIEW

Oncology Physical Therapy

care addresses these following 12 questions. If patients answer “no” to any of these questions, they need physical therapy.

Questions

1. Can you walk, sit and stand for 60 minutes?

2. Can you sleep un-interrupted for 7-8 hours?

3. Can you do your daily activities like showering, washing your hair, dressing, putting on socks and shoes independently?

4. Can you drive to the market for groceries and pick up your own medicine?

5. Can you void and defecate with no problems?

6. Can you swallow, chew, talk and sing?

7. Can you squat to the floor without losing your balance?

8. Can you get up off the floor if you fall down?

9. Can you write, type, use the phone with ease?

10. Do you have heaviness, pressure, dullness in your arm, leg, abdomen or face?

11. Do you have any numbness,tingling and/or pins and needles in your arms, legs, fingers or toes?

12. Are you falling?

Contact

ABOUT LAKE CITY PHYSICAL THERAPY

Founded by Sheree Dibiase PT, Lake City Physical Therapy specializes in oncology care and lymphedema physical therapy.

Sheree is oncology certified and has been practicing oncology care for over 20 years.

Click To Call Now:

Spokane Valley - (509) 891-2623

Coeur d alene - (208) 667-1988

Hayden - (208) 762-2100